Question of the Week

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Question for Children: This week, how can you welcome someone at school or in your neighborhood who is feeling left out?

Question for Youth: Jesus was able to see the faith of the woman, even though she was a sinner. Who is in need of your forgiveness, even though they have done you harm? What is one way that you can offer forgiveness to someone in the weeks to come?

Visits to the Sick and Homebound

If you or a family member is unable to come to church due to illness or the aging process, and would like a visitor from the parish to come to your home or nursing home and bring the Eucharist, please call the Parish Nurse Office or speak with Deacon Joe Messina. Or, if you would like to become involved in this outreach, new visitors are always welcome!

Participating in a support group can help caregivers gain a sense of empowerment and feel less burdened by their responsibilities in caring for someone with this incredibly challenging disease. It is also a very healthy step for a caregiver to take measures to preserve their own health! New members are welcome. Please call the Parish Nurse Office for more information.

Special Collection

Today's special collection envelope supports the retirement, medical care, and financial needs of the priests of the Archdiocese of Boston. Thank you for your generosity!

Business Card Sunday

Parish members want to do business with people they can trust, namely, their fellow parishioners. Advertising in the bulletin helps parishioners who are business owners reach a very loyal audience. Studies show that 68% of households surveyed, when making a choice between businesses, are inclined to choose the one who advertised in the bulletin. Potential new customers are sitting right next to you in church! Next Sunday, we ask that you bring your business card to Mass and place it in the basket in our Gathering Space. Please do not put your card in the offering envelope or baskets. A representative from our bulletin printer will contact you regarding advertising in our weekly bulletin. Thank you for your consideration!

Walpole Farmer's Market

Starting on Wednesday, June 16, and every Wednesday through October, a farmer's market will be held in Walpole. It will run from 3 pm to 8 pm in the Municipal parking lot, next to Stone field, in back of the fire station.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Dear friends-

Thank you in advance for helping with this weekend's special collection on behalf of the retired and disabled priests of the Archdiocese. As I mentioned in last week's bulletin, the proceeds from this special collection as well as the collections taken up at the Christmas and Easter Masses are the primary sources of income to support our retired priests, as well as to fund the medical expenses of our priests who are ill. You have been most generous in supporting these collections in the past, and whatever help you are able to provide at this time is deeply appreciated. There are appeal envelopes at the exits of the church, and if you are not prepared to donate today, please feel free to take one of the envelopes and contribute when you are able.

Last Friday we had our appreciation event to thank the many parish volunteers who keep our parish "up and running" in so many different ways throughout the year. This reception is just a small way to thank all those who give so much to our parish week in and week out. We would grind to a halt if it were not for the dedication of so many fine people. Thanks to Kathy Tinson and her volunteers who make this annual "thank you" a very pleasant event.

Please note too that new volunteers are always most welcomed. Each fall we do hold a ministry recruitment weekend to encourage new volunteers to help with the many dimensions of parish life. Perhaps over the summer you could think about some way that you could help enhance parish life and consider lending a hand in some capacity. This past week we had our final Parish Council meeting and Finance Council meeting until the fall. Again, I am so grateful to the members of these two groups who help me with their advice and counsel. I thank in a special way the "retiring" members of those groups and welcome the new members who will pick up the work of these two groups in September.

Lastly, I know that with the end of the school year many people will begin their summer vacations. I certainly hope that this will be a time of rest and relaxation. I hope too that we will all be kept safe during these summer months and remember that God never takes a vacation away from us, so hopefully we keep God in our summer plans.
